Judge Vascura,

This is the first time we have heard that there is a pending discovery dispute requiring the Court's immediate attention at the close of discovery. We do not believe that counsel has remotely satisfied her obligation to meet and confer. Only yesterday afternoon did counsel send us a letter identifying multiple areas of further inquiry, many of which could have in fact been made months ago. We have therefore had no opportunity to investigate--let alone meaningfully meet and confer on--the multiple areas of inquiry Ms. Corl has just identified. Once we have had the opportunity to adequately investigate and confer with our client, and then respond to counsel's eleventh hour requests, there then may or may not be issues ripe for consideration by the Court. We are hopeful that once we are able meaningfully meet and confer, it will not be necessary.

Thank you very much for your attention to this matter.

Judge Vascura, please be advised that the parties have a discovery dispute which requires the Court's attention. We are bringing this to the Court's attention prior to the close of discovery. Thank you, as always, for your attention to this matter.

Thank you, counsel. We will notice this conference for 11am on November 19, 2020. In advance of the conference, it would also be helpful if you could provide copies of the particular interrogatories and answers that are in dispute.

Regards,

Counsel,

Now that Judge Graham has overruled Plaintiff's objections to Judge Vascura's denial of Plaintiff's Motion for Recusal, Judge Vascura would like to re-set this matter for a discovery conference. Please confer and provide a few dates and times during the week of November 16 in which all parties are available. Please also advise us if the parties have resolved any of the items noted in their October 28 submissions in the interim.

Regards,

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Judge Vascura, in the interest not wasting the Court's time, with respect to number 3 on Plaintiff's summary to the Court related to redaction of student names in investigation materials, Defendants have already agreed to provide the unredacted documents. I'm not sure why that was included in the summary. Thanks.
